

Thought for the Day

“Use your talents, do your best, contribute. Make a difference, because you can.” - unknown

Hi All,

Tomorrow is Ground Hog Day and all eyes will turn to Gobbler's Knob in Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania. Will Punxsutawney Phil see his/her shadow or not? Will we have six more weeks of winter (or finally get to winter weather) or not?

This coming Sunday, February 5, 2012, is Boy Scout Sunday. We expect that Troop 130 which meets in Fellowship Hall will be here with their leaders and parents. The scripture is from the Gospel of Luke and the Old Testament lesson is from Genesis. Pastor Jim's sermon is "What Kind of God Do You Think I Am?". The service will end with the Ministry of Communion.

Are you getting tired of all the hype about the Super Bowl yet? For some reason, this year, I am fascinated by each report. I don't remember being this excited about previous Super Bowls even when the Pats were in them. Perhaps it's having a new son (my daughter's husband) who used to play football and even tho he's not from N. E. is a Patriots fan. Whatever the reason, I am looking forward to the game more than I have in the past.

Whatever your weekend plans are, we hope to see you on Sunday morning! We do miss you when you are away from church.

Have hope in your heart
Have peace in your soul
Have love in your life
Have joy in each moment,
Now and Always.

and Go Pats!
Blessings,
Ruth
